

The Echo Corpus

1. The Echo Corpus is a collection of assignments submitted by students to Dr. WEE Lian-Hee of the Department of English Language and Literature, Hong Kong Baptist University. The corpus is named after Echo Yuen Kwan WONG, a student who first asked the author for permission to study the written texts of students in Hong Kong. All information allowing identification of the various authors of the assignments have been removed to protect privacy.

2. The collection begins with the year 2006 and is updated to the folder corresponding to the most recent year.

3. Citation: please cite corpus as
